December 2009

FROM THE COMMANDER

I would like to thank everyone that participated in the Veterans Day Parade. Also thank you to the people who made the early-bird dinner possible and to those that contributed to the Auxiliary Dinner.

Our Thanksgiving Meals-on-Wheels was another successful event and I thank all of you that donated turkeys and money, without which none of this would have been possible.

Remember December is VA&R month. Be a part of helping a veteran or a veteran's family to take that step up. Lets also not forget December 6th is the WWII brunch, a day to remember all of our veterans that gave their lives so that we could be free and also the ones that are still with us.

I wish one and all a very, very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Please drive safely during the holidays; we want you back healthy and sound. I also want to wish Mrs. J.J. a Happy Hanukkah. PS: Key card change January the 1st. Use front door and have 2010 membership card ready to receive a new key card, NO EXCEPTIONS.

For God and Country,

Wayne O. Smith

FROM THE PRESIDENT

I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving with your family and friends. I did. So thankful that we have one of my great-nephews home from Iraq.

Praying for the other one to get home safe in January. So thankful for the men and women who protect our freedom.

Last month was such a busy month. We want to thank the Legion for the Birthday gift, we will put it to good use. As Eddie Weber said we have been playing musical chairs with the Birthday gifts. It seems we usually exchange the same amount of money. Thanks to Larry's crew for the nice dinner. It was real good.

Thanks to the ladies who donated to the Bake Sale. the money will go to send our 4 girls to Girl State, as it cost us $1080.00 to send them to Tallahassee. It takes a lot of baked goods to make that much money, along with the buyers.

Be sure to get your notice for the children's Christmas party into us. We need to make sure Santa has the gifts for them. We are looking forward to Santa's visit.

Please don't forget our Mexican Dinner Dec. 17, 5 P.M till 7:30 P.M. We need your support as this is one of the ways we make the money for our obligations for the Veterans Hospital, Clinic, Fisher Houses and many more things for the Veterans and community.

Don't forget to support the Breakfast's, Steak Shoot's, and the Dinner's. For God and Country,

Pauline Nees
